MB REAL ESTATE REPRESENTS MEDIAFLY IN OFFICE RELOCATION AND EXPANSION IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO—Friday, May 20, 2016 – MB Real Estate Services Inc. (MBRE) is pleased to announce that Vice President, Corporate Services, Kyle Robbins has completed a new 18,142 square foot lease on behalf of Mediafly at 150 N. Michigan Avenue in Chicago.

Founded in 2006, Mediafly is an enterprise software company that enables sales transformation by modernizing marketing and empowering sales teams to deliver the perfect in-person selling experience. In 2014 and 2015, Mediafly was ranked on Inc. Magazine’s 5000 Fastest Growing Companies list, an annual list of the fastest growing private companies in the United States. For the past three years, the firm has leased 6,709 square feet at 444 N. Michigan Avenue, but due to the firm’s rapid growth and need for additional space, Mediafly chose to relocate to the 20th floor of 150 N. Michigan Avenue, where it will nearly triple its space.

“Mediafly was in need of a larger space in order to accommodate their growing operations,” said Robbins. “150 N. Michigan is a first-class office building that provides the tech firm with an ideal location, great views, an abundance of new amenities as well as the space requirement and flexibility to meet their current and future business needs .”

Robbins assisted the firm with its site selection analysis, ultimately securing space within 150 N. Michigan Avenue. Mediafly will move into the new space later this year. Robbins represented Mediafly in the lease negotiations while Matt Lerner and Mark Baby of Cushman & Wakefield represented ownership.
