MCCA W PROMOTED TO VICE PRESIDENT FOR MB REAL ESTATE

CHICAGO, APRIL 24, 2020 — MB Real Estate is pleased to announce that Craig McCaw has been promoted to vice president from assistant vice president within the firm’s Corporate Services and Tenant Advisory group. McCaw joined MB Real Estate in 2005 and quickly rose within the organization based on his expertise and transaction volume. He specializes in structuring complex real estate transactions for a diverse portfolio of corporations in various industries.

Focusing on tenant representation and new business development, McCaw has been applauded by a wide range of clients for his ability to thoroughly understand even the most complicated assignments with relative ease. He has also helped improve cash flows and GAAP schedule utilization for multiple clients that are preparing for public offerings.

“Whether he’s working with large public or private corporations, or the latest tech startups, Craig has proven to be a consistent producer for our team,” said Andrew Davidson, executive vice president and managing director of Corporate Services and Tenant Advisory. “His client-focused approach and analytical nature make him an exceedingly effective partner.”

MB Real Estate’s nationally recognized corporate services and tenant advisory group works with some of the country’s fastest-growing companies, specializing in developing comprehensive real estate strategies and leading negotiations on behalf of their clients. The group’s expertise includes lease administration and negotiation, relocation, subleasing, acquisition and disposition, consultation on specialty use sites and municipal incentives, demographic and feasibility studies and workplace strategies.
